

YOUR STORM PREPAREDNESS CHECKLIST FROM CATERPILLAR

WELL BEFORE THE STORM:

- Make sure you have a generator that will support your most important electrical needs
- Pull out generator from storage and make sure there is no old/spoiled fuel in it
- Start generator to make sure it works
- Maintain emergency supplies
 - One gallon of water per person, per day
 - Two-week supply of easy-to-prepare, nonperishable food
 - Flashlights with extra batteries (do NOT use candles)
 - First aid kit and seven-day supply of any medications
 - Sanitation and personal hygiene items
 - Battery-powered or hand-cranked NOAA weather radio
 - Copies of personal documents
 - Can opener and basic cutlery
 - Smartphone/cell phone chargers
 - Extra cash
 - City map
 - Inflatable raft
 - Pet food and essential supplies if you have a pet
 - Duffel bag for supplies
 - Water filter
- Family evacuation plan is _____
- City evacuation plan is _____

Head over to cat.com/generatorsizingtool to find the generator that meets your needs.

STORM'S COMING:

- Power up smartphones to full charge
- Charge portable battery packs
- Have enough gas on hand (12-20 gallons) to run your generator for 24 hours straight
- Touch base with your family members, roommates and other significant people in your life to alert them of your current situation
- Dial up the cold settings to maximum on both your refrigerator and freezer
- Stay up-to-date on the weather via a NOAA radio or app
- Make sure you have a clear understanding of the safest place in your home or your city's evacuation plan
- Keep your shoes, wallet, smartphone and essential medications close by (if you have to take cover or evacuate, keep these things with you)

AFTER THE STORM:

- Do not drink or prepare food with tap water until you know it's not contaminated
- Turn freezer and refrigerator settings back down to conserve power after the storm has passed
- Let friends/family know you're safe (Facebook's I'm Safe tool is a good option)
- Check on your neighbors and lend generator power if you are able

